

Salmon Sanctuaries Course

(For Primary Schools in Ireland)

Salmon are at the heart of Biodiversity studies...their presence is proof that your local water quality is high and that a wide web of other Wildlife is present. If your local Salmon are in decline, there are simple actions you may take to restore your Valley to welcome salmon once again.

'Salmon Sanctuaries' Booklet

'Salmon Sanctuaries' – Short Video

View a PDF of the 'Salmon Sanctuaries' booklet at: <https://bit.ly/3F3H1wt>
Teachers may preview the 'Salmon Sanctuaries' film at: <https://bit.ly/3EJUmdk>

The 'Salmon Sanctuaries' Course, designed for engagement with 5th & 6th Class in Primary Schools, consists of:

- * Supply of 25+ copies of printed, hard-copy 'Salmon Sanctuaries' booklets
- * Access to the 'Salmon Sanctuaries' short video
- * Follow-up 1-hour Zoom session with StreamScapes teaching staff

To register for the 'Salmon Sanctuaries' course, or for further information, contact us at:

my.streamschool@gmail.com

or ring us on 027 50453

Produced by:

StreamScapes Unit
Coomhola Salmon Trust Ltd.
Bantry, Co. Cork, Ireland P75 TY47

The StreamScapes Project is affiliated with the 'Heritage-in-Schools' scheme & 'The Discover Centre' Network